

NEWS AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

TEXAS LAND TITLE ASSOCIATION

Texas Land Title Association Honors Joey Prohaska as Honorary Member

The Texas Land Title Association (TLTA), one of the state's oldest trade associations, proudly announced the appointment of Joey Prohaska as an Honorary Member during the Annual Conference and Business Meeting held in San Antonio. This distinguished recognition, bestowed sparingly, celebrates Joey's contributions to both TLTA and the title industry over several decades.

Retiring from the title industry in 2019, Joey Prohaska left an indelible mark through her devotion to education. From 1992 to 2003, Joey served as chair of the TLTA School Committee, playing a pivotal role in shaping the future of the industry by ensuring the education and development of its professionals. Additionally, her involvement as chair of the Education/Seminars committee 1996-97 and 2000-02 allowed her to actively shape comprehensive educational programs that propelled the industry forward. Her influence on industry education exceeded her committee work, as she shared her knowledge and expertise as a regular speaker at TLTA programs, enriching the professional development of countless industry practitioners. Her willingness to provide insights and guidance has directly benefited a wide range of individuals within the title industry.

Leslie Midgley, Executive Vice President and CEO of TLTA, expressed her admiration for Joey Prohaska's legacy, "Joey's invaluable insights and true passion for teaching and training make her an essential voice in the Texas title industry. Her unwavering commitment to education has left a lasting impact on our industry, and we are thrilled to recognize her outstanding achievements with this well-deserved honor."

Joey Prohaska awarded Honorary Member status

Joey's commitment to the industry goes beyond her educational contributions and is further exemplified by her leadership on TLTA's Certification Committee from 2003 to 2011. As one of the first designated certified professionals, she made noteworthy contributions to the committee, assuming the role of co-chair from 2005 to 2009, and playing a crucial part in the program's development and success. Joey's achievements were previously recognized through other accolades, including the Peggy Hayes Teaching Award in 1994, the James H. Garst President's Award in 1998, the Professional Excellence Award in 1999, and Title Person of the Year in 2001.

TLTA extends its heartfelt congratulations to Joey Prohaska on this prestigious honor. Her exceptional service and commitment to education have solidified her reputation as a leading figure in the Texas title industry and earned her respect among her colleagues.

About TLTA

Founded in 1908, the Texas Land Title Association (TLTA) is a statewide trade association representing the Texas title insurance industry and currently serving more than 16,000 professionals involved in the safe and efficient transfer of real estate. In the course of their daily work, our membership serves over a million consumers each year. With active members in all of Texas' 254 counties, TLTA membership comprises over 85 percent of the title insurance agents and underwriters licensed to do business in Texas. For more information about TLTA, visit www.tlta.com.