

NEWS AND ACCOMPLISHMENTS

TEXAS LAND TITLE ASSOCIATION

Rodney Anderson Elected President of Texas Land Title Association

The Texas Land Title Association (TLTA), one of the state's oldest trade associations, proudly announces the election of Rodney Anderson as its 109th President. Anderson, who is Executive Vice-President and National Agency Manager for Alliant National Title Insurance Company and a former Texas legislator, brings a wealth of experience and an unwavering commitment to TLTA's mission.

Leslie Midgley, Executive Vice President and CEO of TLTA, expressed excitement about Anderson's leadership, "We are delighted and privileged to welcome Rodney into this role within our organization. With over three decades of experience in underwriter agency operations and remarkable achievements in public service, Rodney brings invaluable expertise and a strategic vision to the position of president. I look forward to working closely with him as we navigate the challenges and seize the opportunities that lie ahead this year."

TLTA President for 2023-24 Rodney Anderson (left), receives the gavel from outgoing TLTA President Paul R. Rodriguez

Anderson has made significant contributions to TLTA through his dedicated committee service, serving as 2022-23 Chair of the Finance Committee, 2009-10 Communications & Marketing Committee Chair, 2002-2003 Member Services Committee Chair, a member of the Regulatory and Federal Issues committees and a member of the TDI Licensing Task Force.

Serving three terms as a state representative in the Texas Legislature, Anderson played a vital role in shaping legislation crucial to the title industry. His dedication was recognized through his receipt of the TLTA Legislator of the Year Award during the 82nd and 84th Sessions. Additionally, Anderson is active in his community, serving on several esteemed boards, including the Grand Prairie YMCA Board of Directors, Grand Prairie Rotary Club Board, the Baylor Scott & White - Irving Board, and is an affiliate member of the Arlington Board of Realtors.

Anderson's industry career began 30 years ago when he was recruited while working at a large national bank in the special asset division. He holds a Bachelor of Business Administration in real estate from the University of Texas at Arlington. Anderson and his wife, Heather, have enjoyed a nearly 32-year marriage and are proud parents of three sons who are all Eagle Scouts.

About TLTA

Founded in 1908, the Texas Land Title Association (TLTA) is a statewide trade association representing the Texas title insurance industry and currently serving more than 16,000 professionals involved in the safe and efficient transfer of real estate. In the course of their daily work, our membership serves over a million consumers each year. With active members in all of Texas' 254 counties, TLTA membership comprises over 85 percent of the title insurance agents and underwriters licensed to do business in Texas. For more information about TLTA, visit www.tlta.com.