

George Stablein Announced as President/CEO and Counsel of Worth National Title Insurance Company

May 22, 2024

Worth National Title Insurance Company is pleased to announce the appointment of George Stablein as President/CEO and Counsel. George will lead the company in all aspects of its growth and development, leveraging his extensive experience and expertise in the title industry.

With over two decades of experience, George's visionary leadership and commitment to fostering relationships will be instrumental in continuing Worth National Title's success. His extensive legal and industry knowledge, combined with his dedication to supporting agents, make him the ideal leader for Worth National Title.

Stablein says that his involvement in the industry's trade association, the Texas Land Title Association (TLTA), reflects his longstanding commitment to the title industry and reflects his passion for excellence. A member since 1998, he has been a frequent speaker at TLTA educational programs and served as the association's Young Professionals Committee Chair. Reflecting on this, he stated, "TLTA has been a significant factor in my career, culminating in this incredible opportunity provided by Scott McKnight. I owe a great deal to mentors like Tom Blackwell, Roland Love, Bill Moize, Mark Greek, Chris Phillips, and Bill Shaddock. Their guidance and wisdom have been invaluable. I am deeply grateful for this opportunity and look forward to serving the agents of Texas, many of whom I have met through my involvement in TLTA."

Worth National Title Insurance Company looks forward to the innovative strategies and growth initiatives George will bring in his new role, ensuring the company remains at the forefront of the title industry.
