Dear TLTA Member,

TLTA is built on a foundation of shared values – those things that define us and that we stand for as an organization and community of professionals. Our values include, among other things, the fostering of engagement and open, honest dialogue. Our values also include the commitment that all within our community have an opportunity to be heard, to be involved and most importantly, to succeed.

The events of the last few weeks across our country have saddened us. They have also reminded us of the importance of working together as a community of title professionals to ensure that those values guide us in all that we do.

There is no room for prejudice or discrimination anywhere, including within TLTA and our industry. We believe in the fundamental principles of equity and inclusion. We intend to ensure that at TLTA we not only continue to stand on those principles, but also make sure we live by them. We do not have all the answers, but our hearts and minds are open, we are listening and we are committed.

We are proud of our TLTA community and we continuously strive to ensure that it is welcoming and inclusive of each and every one of our members. Thank you for being part of this community and for all you do to further and elevate our shared values. Together we truly are better.

Best regards,
