What kind of jobs do we offer?

- Financial Services / Accounting: We hold and transfer money for buyers and sellers during property transactions, and serve as a neutral third party to ensure all the pieces of a transaction come together to a successful close.
- Research: When someone wants to buy or sell a property, we research the property's history, including past ownership.
- Marketing and Business Development: Finding new customers and staying connected to the community we serve are the keys to our business's success.
- Legal: Whether you already have a law degree or you're interested in legal services and support, our regulated business relies on sound legal support to ensure we meet our legal obligations and give our customers peace of mind.
